Policy

Website Use By Children

Parents are encouraged to be aware of their child’s online usage, presence, and activities. Children under 13 must have their parent’s or guardian’s permission before sending or posting any personal information (for example, name, address, email address, etc.) to anyone, including First Unitarian Universalist Church or its social media platforms. See COPPA (Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act).

Tracking Website Use

Our website software automatically gathers information from your browser and may set a cookie to determine trends in peak activity, determine the number of visitors, track the frequency that individual pages are accessed, and to ensure our links are working properly. For each visitor to our website, our website hosting server automatically recognizes the visitor’s domain name, IP (Internet Protocol) address, and browser software. It may also recognize the operating system and the site from which the visitor linked to us. It does not harvest email addresses or other personal information. This tracking information is not shared with other organizations.

We do not employ spyware or adware of any kind.

Links to Third Party Sites

Our web site may contain some hyperlinks to websites operated by parties other than uurochmn.org, for your reference only. The inclusion of hyperlinks to other websites does not imply any endorsement of the material on these websites or any association with their operators.

Information Accuracy

First Unitarian Universalist Church of Rochester, MN will make every effort to ensure that the information presented on our website is accurate. If inaccuracies occur, we will make every effort to correct them in a timely manner. To report any web site inaccuracies or for questions about these policies, please contact the Operations Director.
